The Gorilla.

The Appleton Advertiser in [illegible] Du Chaillu among other [illegible] gives the following graphic sketches of the gorilla in his native wilds. And What is said [illegible] extract relating his first experience with the gorilla:

"Then the underbrush swayed roughly just ahead, and I presently beheld us stood an immense male gorilla. It had come through the jungle on his all fours; but when he saw our party he erected himself, and looked us boldly in the face. He stood about a dozen yards from us, and was a sight I think I shall never forget. Nearly six feet high, he proved four inches over with immense body, huge chest and gigantic muscular arms, with fiercely-glaring large deep gray eyes and a hellish expression of face which seemed to me like some nightmare vision—thus stood before us, this king of the African forest!

"He was not afraid us. He stood there and beat his breast with his huge fists till it resounded like an immense bass drum, which is their mode of offering defiance, meantime giving vent to roar after roar.

"The roar of the gorilla is the most singular and awful noise heard in [illegible] resembles an exaggerated caricature of a human being." Moreover to such an extent is it evident that he was impressed by the native stories that he mentioned that he searched continually to ascertain whether an intermediate race rather several intermediate races or links, between the native and the gorilla, might not be found. As he could get no nearer to man than the gorilla himself—that is to say, as no intermediate relatives were forthcoming, he allows that Du Chaillu's skeleton has so far reason for complacency that, if his ursine companion is connected with him in any degree, a cousin so very far distant can hardly expect to be acknowledged at this time of day and in the presence of good society.

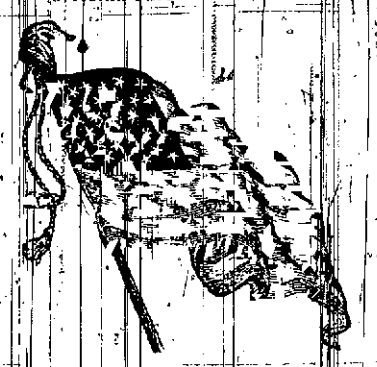
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 12, 1861.

The secession papers have much to say of the appointment of civilans to military offices. Of course the editors of those papert were not anxious that our army should have good officers to thrash the Secessionists. Every one knows they does not wish them to be whipped. They believe in the right of Secession, and never have complained of the outrages of Jeff. Davis & Co. The motive that prompts these editors in their censures, is just to do what they can to injure the Government. These editors would really rejoice if all military officers were incompetent for their positions, and that the Southern hordes would overrun the capital and the border States.

The Sacramento Union wants inefficient officers to be dismissed from the army. So do we. So does every true friend of the Constitution and the Union. The same difficulties we now suffer in this respect, were realized at an early period of the war with Great Britain; but it was soon remedied, and it will be now.

The idea that Jeff. Davis' men want our army to be officered only by veterans, is ridiculous enough.

The Barbarities of the South.

The New York Tribune says it is time that we understand the real character of the foe we are called to encounter. Hitherto our treatment of the rebels has been marked with a degree of courtesy and consideration, a tenderness and delicacy, difficult to reconcile with the stern realities of actual warfare. Skulking guerillas, taken with arms in their hands, have been released after a few hour's detention, upon taking the oath of allegiance an obligation no more binding upon the majority of them, than was the fealty they owed to the Government against which they had taken up arms. Officers reared and educated by the country for its defense have in the hour of peril, perjured themselves, and gone off to lead the hosts of Disunion, without let or hindrance. Traitors, known traitors, revel in high places at Washington, and keep Davis and Beauregard advised of secrets too precious to trust to the loyal people of the North, because their removal might wound some sensitive Secessionist. Pirates prey up on our commerce, and the hand of justice is withheld lest Davis, as he insolently threatens, visit vengeance upon them who have been so unfortunate as to fall into his hands. Tenderness and sentiment the rebels construe into weakness and cowardice. Under the brutalizing influence of Slavery, the restraints of civilization have worn away, and their boasted chivalry gives place to a barbarous cruelty, whose deeds make one shudder to contemplate.

Their treatment of our wounded and prisoners stamps them as destitute of all the attributes of humanity. We are told that during the fight they carried American flags to deceive our men, and when small squads that had got separated from the regiments approached these flags, they were fired upon and slaughtered. The rebels also fired upon the wounded, standing them up for targets, and then firing at them. One of the Connecticut men saw this done. A member of the 2d New York saw the rebels' sharpshooters fire upon and kill two ambulance who were giving wine and water to the wounded. They also shot an ambulance bringing off the wounded, attacked flags of truce sent out to succor the suffering, fired point blank at the buildings used as hospitals, and, it is said by some, that they fired the buildings. Capt. Haggerty of the 69th was killed in that charge. When his body was found, his throat was cut from ear to ear, and his ears and nose were cut off. Many of the wounded were found thus disfigured. The faces of our dead, in the skirmish on Thursday, were found horribly mauled with the butt-ends of muskets, and their bodies filled with wounds, evidently inflicted after they had fallen upon the field. Poor Captain Downey, of the Fire Zouaves, on Sunday, being overpowered by numbers, threw down his arms and surrendered. "We take no prisoners, d—n ye," was the reply, and he was literally blown to pieces, no less than sixteen balls entering his body." Such are the experiences of our brave soldiers at the hand of these worse than savages. It is terrible to contemplate the fearful retribution which will eventually be meted out by our troops to the foe; but, if they provoke it by such acts of barbarity, they cannot justly complain.

Letters from the Nez Perce Country.

LEWISTON, W. T., July 20, 1861.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

It is not necessary to inflict another description of Columbia and Snake rivers on the readers of the Oregonian; so I will just tell you the first greeting as I got off the Tenino on the night of the 15th of July. There was scarcely a man who had any thing to sell that did not have the most extraordinary stories, to tell of the richness of the mines; but it was my fate to find immediately upon landing. I knew him once. It was in happier and better days. Then he was quite a spark among the girls—dressed well, and his mouth was wreathed with a perpetual smile: now, how changed! His mouth was like the new moon when her horns are down. An apology for a hat graced his head. His coarse gray shirt was stained with sweat, and across its back the quantity of dust clinging to it was suggestive of a miniature potato patch. His locks were long and hung like rat-tails about his head—his beard was long and shaggy, a scowl was on his brow, and his eyes glowed from beneath. A belt about like a mill-bolt had a revolver of portentous proportions, and a ponderous Bowie-knife pendant from it. A pair of black Russia duck pants—they were white once, but black and greasy now—and boots about the size of fire buckets completed his costume. Coming up to me with a most melancholy face he said:

"So you have come up to see the mines? Tough old place this, you better bet. Men all dying of fever at Oro Fino. Not going there hey? Afraid of it. Die sure. Half the people wink out this summer. Two slaughter-houses. Throw the offal in the creek.—Drink the water. Stench horrible. I have been all around—North Fork, South Fork, Lo-Lo Fork, Oro Fino, Dry Grand—every where, and I say the mines are a 'bilk'. Si milkameen was hefty—very. So was Fraser and Rock Creek; but Nez knocks them all. There must be gold somewhere you think?

"Well, there may be 18 claims paying grub at Oro Fino; the 'rush' to the South Fork has turned tail: there is some gold on the North Fork and Lo-Lo; but it wont pay, and as for Dry Grand—that's played out."

"Yes!" said he with singular earnestness and emphasis, "Dry Grand's played out."

"Well, well, good night; I will go aboard and sleep on what you have said."

"You had a cursed sight better go back to Portland in the morning, and you will if you know when you are well off. For my part, my last chance is an Indian War." So saying he turned up the bank, and his sombre figure was lost to view among the huts of Lewiston.

How it makes one feel.

As the proportion of bad luck to good, is about two to one; a man is about ten times as apt to believe a discouraging story as a good one. When men who "have been all around there" come up to you with a solemn phiz and talk like my discouraged friend, it produces a depression of the heart; and one is disposed to pronounce the mines a "bilk."—But after while we determine to go and see for ourselves. This was my resolve and so I close to be "sold" on the South Fork diggings.

A Question.

A correspondent, in our paper a few days ago, submitted the following question to the editor of the Advertiser:

Would you, Ex-Governor Curry, if you were in the Senate of the United States, vote against a loan to enable the Government to put down rebellion?

An answer, yes or no, would oblige.

MANY OREGONIANS.

The Advertiser acknowledges the call of our correspondent; every one can see that it could be readily answered by an honest, outspoken editor; but he does not answer it—and is guilty of the following attempt to avoid the responsibility of giving an answer:

The Advertiser's Dodge.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Those who wish to propound inquiries to the editor of the ADVERTISER, whether anonymously or otherwise, must seek some other vehicle of conveyance than the columns of abolition newspapers, if they hope to receive respectful attention.

SOUTHERN HATRED OF THE FOREIGN BORN.—De Bow's Review is a Southern publication of high authority among the seceders. It says:

"We are the most aristocratic people in the world. Pride of caste and color and privilege make every white man South an aristocrat in feeling. And aristocracy is the only safeguard of liberty. Better, a thousand times better, to come under the dominion of free niggers or gypsies, than of beastly Yankees, sourkraut Dutch, lousy Irish, or filthy Canadians. Gipsies and free niggers have many amiable, noble and generous traits, but this reeking scum of creation have none!"

BY TELEGRAPH!

[Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.]

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

ST. LOUIS DATES TO AUGUST 4th.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4th.—The Panama Star received by the Northern Light reports that a British vessel was overhauled and boarded on the 11th, by a Southern steamer.

The British brig Herald, which was captured July 16th, for attempting to run the blockade, cleared July 27th, instantly for Turks Islands, where she was chartered by parties at New York, with intent to try the effect of running the blockade.

It is well known in this city, and in New York, that other British vessels left these ports, within 30 days for Wilmington and other North Carolina ports, to take cargoes for England.

WASHINGTON, August 2d.—Official dispatches all speak that the entire blame for the defeat of our forces at Bulls run is due to Patterson's neglect of positive orders—had he obeyed orders we should have gained the victory, destroyed rebellion, and removed the seat of war beyond the confines of Virginia.

ST. LOUIS, August 2.—Col. Solomon and part of Sigel's regiments arrived from the southwest yesterday, and the balance of the Sigel regiments and second Iowa, will probably arrive to-day. These troops will be discharged here, their time having expired.—Nearly all of the two former regiments will re-enlist for the war. Efforts are being made to continue the organization of the reserve corps or home guards beyond the time of their regular enlistment.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—It is rumored that the army of the Potomac will not be kept idle so long as before. It is reported its organization is going on with great rapidity. At furthest but a few regiments will be required.

It is reported in progress to make a forward movement with more success than the last.

Julius Bing, a Prussian, but a naturalized British subject, who was taken prisoner at Bull's Run, returned here to-night. He went on the field with A. V. Ely, and was taken prisoner near the Washington Bridge. He was recognized immediately by Col. Lay, formerly Aid to Gen. Scott, now an officer in the rebel army. On Monday morning he was sent to Manassas, and placed under guard, with other Union prisoners. He obtained an interview with Beauregard, was dismissed, and obtained a pass through the lines. He reports Col. Corcoran as not wounded, but in ill health. Mr. Ely is confined in jail. His conduct on the field encouraging the soldiers from his State, elicited admiration, even from the rebels.

The rebels admit their loss equal to ours.

Large numbers of troops are arriving continually at Richmond from the South.

The conference committee have been in session twenty-four hours on the House tariff and tax bills, and finally agreed on a general bill, which will be reported to-morrow. They take the House tariff bill, changing the duties on liquors and silks; the latter an increase of ten per cent on the Morrill bill, on brandy an increase of 25 per cent, and others as at present.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—In the Senate Mr. Wilson moved to take up the resolution approving all the acts of the President. Agreed to.

Johnson of Tennessee said he would vote for the bill to carry on the war.

Mr. Simmons, by consent, made a report of the Committee of Conference on the tariff Bill.

The ten per cent ad valorem as stricken out. The duty is raised on spices, wines, liquors and silks.

The income tax is placed at 3 per cent on over $800.

The duty on sugar is 2 cents, coffee, 2½ and on tea 10 cts.

It appears that the New York 4th Regiment en route for Washington passing through the South Ward, Baltimore, were fired into with stones by a crowd who cheered for Jeff. Davis. The fire was returned with bullets.

In the House, on motion of Mr. Cox, it was resolved by the Senate and House, as follows: We acknowledge the faithful services and loyal devotion of all soldiers who have fought and fallen defending our flag, and indicating the majesty and supremacy of the Republic.

We commend to the people, the army which is armed for the contest with unyielding courage.

They took up the tariff bill as amended by the House, and also the direct tax bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3d.—A special to the Commercial says Prince Napoleon was formally presented to the President this morning by Secretary Seward.

The name of Col. E. D. Baker, of Oregon, with several others, was submitted to the Senate for confirmation as Brigadier General, on the 31st ult.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13th.—Governor Downey issued a proclamation this morning calling for troops to do service on the overland mail route between this city and the Missouri border. One regiment of Infantry and five companies of Cavalry are called for in accordance to instructions received from Secretary of War. The troops will be mustered into active service immediately by order of Gen. Sumner, expenses of transportation from the interior will be paid for by the Government, as follows: For each foot soldier, 50 cents for each 25 miles; for each dragoon, 75 cents. Dragoons are to furnish their own horses.

Alfred Boril has organized his company of cavalry for service on the plains, 91 persons having signed the roll.

New Yorkers held a meeting last night to raise funds for the widows and orphans of volunteers from that State killed in the war. Wm. T. Coleman, E. Kelly, Gov. Latham, Bradish and Dr. Fellows were appointed a distributing committee for the State of New York. $2000 was subscribed on the spot. New Yorkers in the interior are depended on to increase the fund.

CITY.

CITY COUNCIL.—The City Council met Friday evening, August 16th, 1861. Present—Higgins, Bullock, Hall, King, Masters, and White. Mr. Higgins was elected President pro tem.

The following is a communication from the Mayor, which was read:

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Portland:

GENTLEMEN:—I herewith return to you unsigned your Ordinance passed on the 13th inst., entitled an Ordinance fixing the permanent location of lots and blocks on Front street, in the city of Portland, by the provisions of the 4th Section of said Ordinance. I find that you propose to locate the corners of blocks on Front street on the corners of buildings now standing on said corners. On examination, I find that none of said buildings that are constructed of wood, and which are temporary in character, are so placed in some instances as to bring their corners too far west, and thereby throwing whole blocks of brick stores one foot or further into Front street. Others are so far wrong, north or south as to render their being made the boundary of blocks out of the question. I would recommend that you would take measures to employ competent persons, with the most improved instruments, to make the most accurate and complete survey of the city. I would suggest the employment, if possible, of an engineer of the Army for this purpose.

JOHN M. BRUCK, Mayor.

The report of the City Collector for the month of July, 1861, was read, and, on motion, referred to the Finance Committee.

A communication from the City Assessor, also the Assessment Roll for the year 1861, was received; the communication was read, and motion, filed.

A warrant was ordered to be drawn in favor of the City Milling Company for the sum of $3.

On motion, the Assessment Roll was referred to a Select Committee of three, viz: Bullock, Masters, and Harbaugh.

Mr. White presented the following: "Be it resolved by the Common Council of the city of Portland that the Chief Engineer and Committee on Fire and Water be instructed and hereby are required to have the cisterns repaired that they may find out of order and needing repairs;" which was read, and on motion, adopted.

Mr. Bullock presented the following: "Resolved by the Common Council of the City of Portland, that the Committee on Streets and Public Improvements be, and hereby instructed, to inquire and report upon what terms per month the Portland Gas Light Company will furnish Gas for each street lamp, cleaning and lighting included, at least fifteen lamps to be supplied, and as many more as the Common Council shall direct, from the 20th September, 1861, to the 15th April, 1862. Read, and on motion, adopted.

Mr. White presented the following: "Be it resolved by the Common Council of the City of Portland, that the Chief Engineer and the Committee on Fire and Water be empowered to have service pipes for Gas placed in the walls of the new Engine House to be built for the use of Willamette Fire Company No. 1;" which was read, and on motion, adopted.

Mr. White presented an Ordinance entitled an Ordinance to regulate and license drays, carts, wagons, and other vehicles; which was read, and on motion, the Council adjourned.

HOME.—We invite the attention of the readers to the advertisement of Mr. RUTGES in this paper. He is unquestionably an accomplished instructor, and will give satisfaction to those who may engage his services.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.—The Oregon Conference recently in session at Eugene, has adjourned. The Union resolutions before that body, and which were noticed by our Eugene correspondent, after an able discussion, were adopted by an unanimous vote of the Conference. This exhibition of patriotism on the M. E. Church of Oregon will be exceedingly gratifying to all the lovers of our Constitution, here and elsewhere.

NEWS FROM THE MISSOURI RIVER.—Our correspondent at Lewiston, W. T., writes: "Two men arrived here three days since in seven days from Fort Benton. They report that the steamer Chippewa which was burned, burning up the Flat Head annuities, took fire near the mouth of the Yellow Stone, and was blown to atoms by a quantity of powder which was on board. The passengers were landed and the men report that they were attacked by the Sioux Indians and badly treated. The Indian goods are a total loss, and Worden, of Hell Gate Ronde, loses $17,000. These men left Fort Benton on the 17th July, and the catastrophe happened a short time before."

Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.—A specific for dyspepsia, diarrhœa, dysentery, general debility, chills and fever, liver complaint, bilious remittent fevers, and the pains and weaknesses which creep upon us in old age. For these ailments we quietly invited a trial and a verdict. The trial has come off, the verdict has been rendered, and the bitters are today the most popular remedy, for the time they have been in existence, in this or any other country. It lives and continues to thrive and increase in popularity with marvellous rapidity simply because the world wants it, will have it, cannot do without it. The dyspeptic demands it as his only help, the victims of diarrhœa of every degree believe in it, the bilious sufferer dare not let another bottle run out before he gets another. Both sexes, all ages all classes regard it as the most wonderful invigorant ever compounded. Hence the enormous demand.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Record is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary and emblem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffering when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Tell Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Strangury, Diabetes, Ulcers, Pains in the Kidneys and Bladder, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Eruptions on the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Fits, Tetter, Tumors, and all diseases arising from a deranged state of the Nervous System, Loss of Memory, Loss of Muscular Power, Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar appearance before the eyes, Loss of Sexual Power, Impediments upon the Face, Pimples on the Back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all impediments of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery to perfection and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment after the disease has baffled the skill of every physician and proved the last resort of the afflicted.

Those who may be unfortunate enough to be afflicted with any of the diseases upon which they are advertised, should consider it their duty to themselves and friends to apply for relief without delay, as many have been hurried to untimely graves by the use of Mercury, Sarsaparilla, and other impositions upon the afflicted, while the advice of many physicians, all of whom we know what in several instances they have tried, without benefit. I found to my mortification, that instead of relief my symptoms became more aggravating, and I was gradually sinking into the grave, my friends considering my case hopeless, and my self incapable of exertion, when I was induced to call upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. He at once pronounced my disease Syphilis, and by his strictly obedience to his directions, in a few weeks restored me to perfect health, and I am now as sound as ever. I therefore feel it my duty to recommend him to the afflicted, and would say to them, that they may rely with confidence upon his skill and honor as a gentleman.

H. F. FITZGERALD.

State of California, County of San Francisco ss. Subscribed and sworn to before me this seventh day of April, A. D. 1860.

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 3, 1861.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir, I have received your medicine and do not think I shall need any more. I feel very well, except that I have not entirely recovered my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. In a short three weeks I am now restored, since I called at your institute, which is a blessing to me, as I thought, from present relief, and never thought I would be able to enjoy perfectly, but the night you would be able to enjoy perfectly, but the night you might be able to do so. I used to feel the pain in my back and head, and strength and nerves as that I would not get excited and tremble as I do now that you know what I expected, you will judge for yourself what my life recovery from the symptoms of the removal of the sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest surprise to me, for I thought not having taken but six strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

I closed I send you twenty dollars for your charges, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may print this letter in the newspapers. Respectfully yours THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves mention, not only as an act of scientific skill but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning and although insensible to the agonies I yet despised the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, and having proved to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking relief of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regarding which however he at once struck me down, and with the blessing of God I was soon restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious I may in future need, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician whom every confidence can be placed.
